HPC Healthcare elects new board officers at annual meeting

TAMPA – The HPC Healthcare board of directors elected a new slate of officers at its annual meeting on May 13 in Temple Terrace.

Elected officers are Chair Tamara Shumate Brown, Vice chair Jack Kolosky, Treasurer Brian Hinton and Secretary Tom Conger.

Brown is a Certified Financial Planner™ with LPL Financial in Tampa. Kolosky is the executive vice president and chief operating officer at the H. Lee Moffitt Cancer Center and Research Institute. Hinton is the CEO of the Bartow Consulting Group in Bartow. Conger is senior vice president of Lanier Upshaw in Lakeland.

HPC Healthcare is a not-for-profit hospice and palliative care organization that operates in four central Florida counties. The organization sponsors LifePath Hospice in Hillsborough County; Good Shepherd Hospice in Polk, Highlands and Hardee counties; Axis Palliative Healthcare in Hillsborough and Polk counties; HPC Staffing Services; and HPC Pharmacy Services.

About HPC Healthcare, Inc.

Based in Tampa, HPC Healthcare Inc. is one of the nation's largest, not-for-profit hospice and palliative care organizations. Through its compassionate and comprehensive hospice and palliative care programs in four central Florida counties, HPC Healthcare addresses the pain and end-of-life care needs of more than 2,000 patients each day. To demonstrate its commitment to the communities it serves, HPC Healthcare provided $4.7 million in charity care in 2009.
